Violence and abuse at the hands of a loved one is frightening, degrading and confusing. Have you experienced violence and/or abuse? If so, you are a victim of domestic violence. As a victim you have:

RIGHTS!

- The right to be treated with fairness and respect, preserving your dignity and privacy.
- The right to be reasonably protected from the accused offender.
- The right to be notified of court proceedings.
- The right to be present at all public court proceedings related to the offense, unless the court determines that your testimony would be materially affected if you heard other testimonies at trial.
- The right to confer with an attorney in organizing your case.
- The right to restitution.
- The right to information about the conviction, sentencing, imprisonment and release of the offender.
